

QUICK TIPS

Manage by Walking Around

Nolyn Fueller

Topic

- MBWA – important for all staff positions on a Job Corps Center.
- Being mobile on center is even more important with the technology tools.
- Tips for success – be positive, be inclusive, know names, have questions ready.

Focus/Purpose

- Being mobile and visible has benefits for other staff as well as students.
- Allows us to know what is going on, get to know others, and prevent issues.
- Part of the engagement is listening to staff and students.
- Random mobility is best, but we have to schedule to ensure it is completed.

Key Takeaways

- Determine how you can add mobility into your daily schedule.
- Make a goal to meet staff from different departments.
- Learn the students' names.
- Develop a system for being mobile and interacting.
- Encourage other staff to join you.
- Further questions – Nolyn Fueller, FuellerN@horizonsva.com.